3rd Annual Business Risk Summit

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Ryan Sitton is the founder of Pinnacle, which is the world's largest reliability data analytics company. He consults international corporations on energy markets, holds a number of patents in system design and has served as chief energy regulator for the state of Texas. He has spent the last decade developing and applying quantitative methods to ensure optimal reliability. Ryan most recently published his first book, Crucial Decisions, focused on helping business leaders shift to a crucial decision-making mindset that integrates data analysis with expertise.

Attendees will also receive a complimentary copy of this book.

Join us for our 3rd Annual Business Risk Summit, where industry leaders will share news, trends and opportunities in areas such as insurance, risk management, business planning and tax strategies, plus offer some ideas and tips to help boost your bottom line. Attendees will also hear from our Keynote Speaker Ryan Sitton, who will share how he built one of the world's largest technology companies and how he leverages his experience to help business owners make crucial business decisions to help foster long-term growth.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

CEOs, CFOs, Business Owners, Controllers
